Description

Provide a short description of the event and its activities.

ECILE organised the 2nd international online conference “The memory of the Grand Site: An example of implementing the landscape project, the preservation of agro-pastoral ”, on the 26th of January 2024.

Previous to the celebration of the international conference, two activities were carried out with the local community:

- 1) On November 24, 2023, ECILE, the communications department of the Grand Site de la Conca d'Oru and the Corsican Environmental Office organized the discovery visit to the Patrimonio Patrimonio Trail

- 2) On December 1st, 2023, it was organized a orienteering race directed to students of the St Florent college

ECILE organized on January 26, 2024 the 2nd international online conference “The memory of the great site of Conca d’Oru; An example of implementation of the landscape project, the preservation of agro-pastoral buildings “- WP10.

The conference was held online and lasted 60 minutes. 125 participants from the four countries involved in the project attended the conference (Spain, France, Greece and Italy). If the 1st conference presented the risks generated by climate change were discussed, particularly in terms of fires, damage to biodiversity and agricultural practices, the objective of this 2nd conference was to describe the actions carried out to maintain the agricultural and wine-growing balance of the landscape and to safeguard the agro-pastoral buildings, memory of the territory:

The agenda was covering the following topics:

- presentation of the framework set by the landscape project
- census of the built heritage and proposal of selection criteria elements to be restored
- presentation of a restoration carried out by ECILE

Different testimonies were shared by actors involved in the restoration and the commitment and participation of citizens <https://youtu.be/32mivVsOCRO>

Two types of measures were implemented to overcome language and ICT barriers and facilitate the participation of local communities from all territories involved in the project. On the one hand, simultaneous interpretation was provided from French into Spanish, Greek and Italian. Furthermore, 2 meeting rooms made it possible to follow the conference in person in Bastia and Porto Vecchio involving 21 people.
